Ms. Deanna Williams

Ms. DeAnna Williams is a life coach for divorced women. She assists women in transitioning from marriage to divorce. DeAnna is a recent divorcee, who started her life coaching career, for divorced women, in June of 2015 and received her certifications through the Life Coach Institute of Orange County.

Prior to her divorce, DeAnna was raising her family and spent over 10 years as a wife. Today she offers workshops, individual sessions and seminars. She is currently working on becoming a motivational speaker.

Before becoming a life coach, Ms. DeAnna Williams spent 15 years as an entrepreneur home daycare provider, educating the young minds in her community. In this same community she also received her teaching credentials from Oakton College. To further her additional career pursuits, she is enrolled in an entrepreneurial program at Sunshine Enterprise through the City of Evanston, which will prove to be a stepping stone to enhance her life coaching business.

DeAnna has a powerful belief in treating the human spirit. She is very passionate about helping Divorced Women strive to achieve their best potential, while transitioning through a very emotional, sometimes traumatic time.
